

PROSECUTING ATTORNEY, ALLENSTOWN, NH POLICE DEPARTMENT - The Allenstown Police Department is seeking a full-time, in-house prosecuting attorney. This position is responsible for the preparation, supervision, presentation and negotiation of the police department's cases within the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court, as well as acting as the liaison between the department and the County Attorney's Office for felony referral cases. The position requires legal consultation with the Police Chief and/or other town departments, as well as providing trainings to the department. Applicant must be an active member of the NH Bar in good standing and must successfully complete a background investigation. Experience in criminal prosecution is required, with a minimum of 3 years' experience in prosecution preferred. Valid driver's license is required. Salary: $66,870.00 Please send cover letter and resume to Lt. Michael Stark at 40 Allenstown Road, Allenstown, NH 03275 or email to: mstark@allenstownnh.gov. Cover letter and resume must be received by May 20, 2015. EOE