

The Town of Allenstown is seeking a Finance Director to perform the accounting functions of the Town. This is a full time position with a four day work week. The salary range is $55,000 to $66,000 DOQ, including a full benefits package. The operating budget of the Town is just over $6 million. Applicants should have a bachelor's degree in accounting or related field however a combination of education and experience will be considered. The Town will consider applicants who are under NHRS hours requirements. Send resumes or inquiries to Town Administrator Shaun Mulholland by email only, smulholland@allenstownnh.gov no later than August 3, 2016 at 5 PM. Job description and applications can be found at www.allenstownnh.gov under employment opportunities. Employment applications are to be completed through the website portal. The Town of Allenstown is an equal opportunity employer.