Mike O'Meara stated the Trustees currently have 8 perpetual funds. Only one of those is in Allenstown and it is not in a public cemetery. Five of the eight that we manage are interred within the Catholic Diocese of Manchester. We cannot use the funds because they are not in a public cemetery. We can legally transfer the five perpetual funds for those buried in Catholic cemeteries to the Diocese for them to take over the funds.

That leaves three perpetual funds. One is on private land, one is in Massachusetts, and one we cannot find.

Ms. Higham made a motion to accept the Nonjudicial Settlement Agreement pursuant to RSA 564-B:1-111 between the Town of Allenstown Cemetery Trustees, the Roman Catholic Bishop of Manchester, and Department of Justice office of the Attorney General, Charitable Trust Unit effective as of November 14, 2023.
