

Help Create the Allenstown Business Directory

July 12, 2018

The Economic Development Committee in conjunction with the Board of Selectmen needs your help to create an Allenstown Business Directory. This will be an online directory available from the town web site, containing all local businesses in town, from small single-owner businesses to large commercial enterprises. The listing is free with no strings attached and no favoritism of any kind.

The benefit is to provide residents and visitors with an easy to use method of finding your business, and also to let people see basic information about your business.

To get your business listed, please fill out the following form and send it to:

TA@allenstownnh.gov

If you do not want certain information published, like a street address, enter "Do not publish."
