SUBJ: County Administration – Ross Cunningham

The Board of Commissioners is pleased to announce the appointment of Ross Cunningham as the representative for County Administrative Functions. Ross will continue to serve the Board of Commissioners in his role as Corrections Superintendent and has agreed to take on additional responsibilities for County-wide administration effective immediately.

Ross' leadership skills and his ability to collaborate with the management team will serve the County well going forward. Along with his experience in the budget process and his relationship with Merrimack County Delegation, The Commissioners feel it is the right fit at this time.

Ross can be reached directly at 796-3601 or through the Administration Office at 796-6800.
