

CO 410:2 Consumption of Liquor on Private Property

No person shall consume any liquor or beverage or possess an opened container thereof as defined by RSA 175:1 within the limits of any privately owned land or within the common areas of any privately owned building without the permission of an owner or person in control thereof.